

A Weekly Pattern for praying for our communities and nation

If it helps to have a weekly pattern to guide your prayers for your neighbourhood, here is a suggested prayer diary to take you through the week:

Pray for the work of God throughout the land, believing that your prayers will bring measurable benefits to all segments of society

Sunday pray for your own church and other local places of worship, for leaders, for fellowship and unity, for the Holy Spirit to work pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit and revival in the nation.

Monday pray for parliament, local government, those in authority, the police and justice system.

Tuesday pray for nurseries, schools and colleges, for young people struggling with addiction or facing homelessness.

Wednesday pray for businesses, shops, offices, factories and other work places, for integrity, truth and compassion.

Thursday pray for hospitals and health workers, for the sick, the hurting, the elderly and lonely.

Friday pray for families, relationships, marriages and homes.

Saturday pray for your local area and the particular issues affecting it, for your neighbours,
for community groups.
